Revenue (QR million)

- Strong revenue growth amid capturing growth opportunities, expanding market share and major renewals of contracts across different segments.
- The aviation segment reported the highest growth among all.

Net profit (QR million)

- Net profit decline by 65% against Q1-19, mainly due to the negative performance of insurance segment, as a result of recording significant unrealized losses on the investment portfolio, which was partially offset by improved results across all other segments.
- Improved net profit vs Q4-19, mainly due to improved revenues and reduced direct costs, general and administrative expenses and financing cost, partially offset by unrealized loses incurred on investment portfolio.

EBITDA (QR million)

- EBITDA down compared to last year mainly due to the impact of unrealized loses incurred on investment portfolio within the insurance segment.

Revenue: Increased compared to last year by 16%. All segments witnessed a positive growth in revenue, among which the aviation segment reported the highest level of growth.

Direct Costs: Costs across at the Group level went up by 9%, mainly due to the increase in costs of the insurance segment as a result of higher reinsurance costs slightly offset by lower net claims. Aviation segment costs up by 18% due to higher aircraft maintenance expenses. Catering segment costs saw an increase of 9%, as a result of higher staff and salaries cost related to manpower contracts. Drilling segment costs reduced by 12% compared to last year mainly due to cost optimization initiatives.

G&A Expenses: Increased by 15% mainly due to increase in G&A expenses relating to aviation segment, in relation to management fees paid for Libyan operations, and certain consultancy costs paid at the head office level.

Finance Costs: Down by 15%, primarily as a result of lower Libor rates;

Other Income: Significant reduction in other income primarily impacted by the insurance segment as result of lowered investment income.

Other Expenses: Reduced mainly due to a loss booked in Q1-2019, pertaining to disposal Al-Doha rig spare parts.
